

Lee Stiles

Biography

Lee Stiles of Promega has over 20 years of experience managing and leading midsize companies in the Pacific Northwest. Lee has served as CEO of a major wholesale bakery, COO of a leading specialty retail chain, and sales manager for a niche service company in the industrial construction industry. In addition he has started his own business and consulted with dozens of other companies.

As a consultant, Lee emphasizes identifying “the vital few” and helping create a culture of accountability that accelerates his client’s progress. Family-owned and closely-held businesses are a passion for Lee because of his early career experiences and the special challenges these businesses face.

Lee is a third generation Seattleite. Through his involvement for the last 20 years as an advisor to the Salvation Army, he works to keep our community special. He is currently chairman of the HOPE Campaign, and past chair of the board. For his leadership, Lee was awarded the Arthur Langlie Award for Visionary Leadership in 2003. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Hotel and Restaurant Administration from Cornell University.
